Centred around a beautiful private swimming pool, this stylish villa has been designed to make the most of the Costa del Sol lifestyle, with sun-filled interiors, generous outdoor spaces and a sense of privacy throughout.

The heart of the home is its bright open-plan living space, where the lounge, dining area and sleek modern kitchen flow seamlessly together. Floor-to-ceiling glass doors open directly onto the pool terrace, allowing natural light to flood the interiors while creating an effortless transition outside. The fully fitted kitchen, complete with a large central island and contemporary finishes, makes the space equally suited to relaxed mornings at home and evenings spent entertaining family and friends. The bedrooms continue the villa’s calm and elegant aesthetic, with soft neutral tones, fitted storage and direct connections to the outdoor areas.

Outside is where this home truly comes into its own. The private pool is framed by spacious sun terraces, lush tropical planting and inviting lounge areas, while a covered dining terrace provides the perfect spot for long lunches and warm Marbella evenings. The architecture wraps naturally around the outdoor space, giving the villa an intimate, resort-like atmosphere where the pool becomes an extension of the living areas.

Set in Los Ángeles, one of the established residential areas of San Pedro de Alcántara, the villa places you close to the beach, restaurants, shops, schools and the lively centre of San Pedro. Puerto Banús, Nueva Andalucía and some of Marbella’s renowned golf courses are also within easy reach, offering the perfect balance between relaxed residential living and everything the Marbella lifestyle has to offer.
