Overview: The property is distributed on two floors and offers three spacious bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom, ensuring privacy and comfort. In addition, it has an elegant complimentary toilet and a series of carefully selected details that enhance its exclusive character: restored original mouldings, high ceilings, noble carpentry and contemporary elements that provide sophistication and functionality.

The jewel of the house is its panoramic terrace, a unique space to enjoy the stunning sea views, the Mediterranean breeze and the natural light that characterizes this privileged area of Malaga.

A unique home that merges history, design and exceptional location.
