Overview: This three-bedroom apartment is located on the frontline of the beach in Benalmádena Costa, offering sea and panoramic views, a south-facing orientation and a private terrace. Set within a gated community, the residence also enjoys views over the communal pool and is presented in excellent, recently refurbished condition.

The apartment has 130 m² of interior space within a total built area of 167 m², including a 37 m² terrace. Its layout comprises a living room, a separate dining room, a fully fitted and equipped kitchen, three bedrooms and three bathrooms, all en suite. The property is offered fully furnished and features marble flooring, fitted wardrobes, air conditioning, underfloor heating throughout, double glazing and a separate utility and laundry area. A storage room and security features including an alarm, an armoured door and video entry add further practicality.

The private terrace extends the living space outdoors, while the community provides a communal garden, swimming pool and garage, with one parking space. Residents also benefit from a gated setting, 24-hour security service and surveillance cameras. The beach is directly nearby, with shops, local amenities, transport, schools, the town centre and the port also listed as close at hand.
