Overview: This elegant west-facing apartment, centrally located in San Pedro, blends contemporary design, spaciousness, and energy efficiency, offering a residential environment designed for comfort without sacrificing style.

The apartment includes three bedrooms, featuring a master en-suite of 20 m², conceived as a private and relaxing retreat. The secondary bedrooms, 12 m² both, maintain a balanced and versatile layout, adaptable to various lifestyles.

The day area revolves around an open-plan living, dining, and kitchen space of 45 m², where natural light flows freely and enhances the sense of space—a perfect setting for hosting, sharing, and enjoying home life comfortably.

Highlights include built-in wardrobes, Climalit exterior windows and doors, and a fully equipped, German designer kitchen with Siemens appliances. The home also features an aerothermal system and underfloor heating, included in the price, providing efficient, silent, and sustainable climate control, elevating comfort to the next level.

A property that reflects a modern, elegant, and energy-conscious lifestyle in a prime location.
