■■■■■■■■■:The house has been recently renovated offering a perfect balance between style, functionality and comfort. Upon entering we find a bright and cozy living room-kitchen, furnished with sofa, table and television. The kitchen, integrated in the space, is fully equipped and has been designed to make the most of every corner, creating a practical and current atmosphere.

The bedroom offers a quiet and intimate atmosphere, with a 1.50 bed with canapé and wardrobe, ideal to secure the rest and the storage room.

The bathroom, complete and with excellent finishes, has a shower dish with parampara and exterior window, which provides natural light and ventilation, an unusual added value.

The house also has air conditioning, ensuring comfort throughout the year.

It is part of a typical house kills, sharing the entrance and a nice patio with three other houses, which gives it an authentic character and a quiet atmosphere.

Located in El Palo, a few minutes walk from the beach, surrounded by shops, restaurants and perfectly connected, this apartment is ideal for those looking for a new home and enjoying the essence of Malaga.
