
■■■■■■■■■■: Located in the sought-after community of La Perla de la Heredia, on the Ronda road near Marbella, this exceptional five-bedroom townhouse offers a blend of comfort, style, and convenience. South to west orientated, the property enjoys sunlight throughout the day. Recently partly renovated, it provides a modern yet warm atmosphere in a prime location close to all amenities, golf courses, and the town center of San Pedro, with the beach just a 10 to 15-minute drive away.

With a generous built size of 312m² plus terraces and a private pool area, the home is well-distributed across three levels:

- Upper Floor: The entrance level features a welcoming hallway, a one-car garage, and separate the master bedroom with an en-suite bathroom and dressing area. Additionally, there is a guest bedroom with an en-suite bathroom.
- Main Floor: A staircase leads to the spacious living and dining area, complete with a fireplace. The open-plan kitchen is fully fitted with high-quality Bosch and Liebherr appliances, and gas cooking. This level also includes a guest toilet. From the living area, there is direct access to a covered and open terrace, which extends to a comfortable lounge and BBQ area, along with the garden and private pool.
- Lower Floor: This level consists of three guest bedrooms with one en-suite bathroom and one bathroom shared, and a dedicated laundry area.

Additional features include air conditioning with heating, as well as underfloor heating on the upper and main floors. The furniture is negotiable.
